

International Roommate Program Application

The Department of University Housing and the Center for International Education are pleased to announce the continuation of UT's International Roommate Program for the fall semester. Experience "international living" on campus! Room with another American student and two international students in the Apartment Residence Hall.

- Develop your language skills.
- Make lifelong friendships.
- Diversify your UT experience.
- Share your culture and learn about others.

I would like to apply for the International Roommate Program for the 2010-2011 academic year.
